LONGWORTHS LIKE US WELL

(From Thursday's Advertiser.)

"We fell in love with Honolulu when we were here before and we have always wanted to get back here for another visit," said Hon. Nicholas Longworth yesterday, giving this as a reason for the visit he and Mrs. Longworth, who was here last as Alice Roosevelt, daughter of President Roosevelt, propose paying to the islands, a visit which will last until September 5. There is nothing political in Mr. Longworth's trip, which is one of pleasure and rest solely.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth are comfortably located in the largest of the cottages at the Seaside and already they have resumed the surf-riding which was summarily cut short two years ago by the sailing of their steamer for the mainland. Secretary Atkinson accompanied them in their canoe rides and saw that no accidents occurred. The Secretary will be, in fact, the companion of the Longworths in all their various trips about the islands, doing the planning for them and having all the details left in his hands.

"I understand that he knows the ropes pretty well," said Mr. Longworth, "and we have left all our plans in his hands. We hope to make a trip around the islands and see many of the things we have been long wanting to see but which so far we have only heard of. I got a scorching postcard from the volcano a short time ago, sent me by my friend Congressman Cole and I am going to return the compliment. Cole and I not only come from the same state, but we entered politics together, being elected the same year to the State House and in the same year to Congress, in addition to which we have stumbled together and are close, personal friends."

"There is nothing political in my visit. It is probable that I will see a good deal of Secretary Straus while he is here, but I do not propose to take any part in the investigations he is to carry on. I do not even know definitely what he is here for."

"I see that Ohio has endorsed Taft for the Presidency," said the Congressman, turning the subject from himself and his wife and drifting into politics, in spite of the assertion that he was not interesting himself in national affairs at present. "I am a Taft man, you know, and I am doing everything I can to boost him."

When it was suggested that so far as voting for the Chief Magistrate was concerned Hawaii was not in it, he answered that the six votes the Territory had in the National convention would help some. Evidently a part of the pleasure that the President's son-in-law is looking forward to in Hawaii is to have an instructed delegation go from here to the meeting of the nominators of the next Republican candidate for the White House.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Justice Frear called at the Longworths' cottage, he with the exception of Secretary Atkinson, being the only one so far to pay their respects to the distinguished couple. Within the next few days, however, the Seaside is sure to be the social center of the city for the time being. The reports in the San Francisco papers to the effect that the Longworths were avoiding social entertainments is said by Mr. Longworth to have been a mistake. As a matter of fact they were only in San Francisco for a couple of days and had no time either for entertaining or for being entertained.

It is expected that they will be present at the dance to be given at the Seaside tonight in their and Secretary Straus' honor and a dinner invitation for Sunday night has been accepted by Mrs. Longworth, in the party to be Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, Mr. and Mrs. Jack London and Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Church.

Hair 55 Inches Long Grown by Cuticura.

MISS B—, of L—, sends us through our British Agents, Messrs. F. Newberry & Sons, 27 and 28, Charterhouse Square, London, E. C., a strand of soft, glossy hair cut from her own head and measuring fifty-five inches in length, of which the annexed drawing is a photographic fac-simile. She attributes her magnificent head of hair to frequent shampooing with CUTICURA SOAP, followed by light dressings of CUTICURA, previous to the use of CUTICURA, her hair was dry, thin, and lifeless, and came out in handfuls to such an extent that she feared she would lose soon it.

This is but one of many remarkable cases of the preservation and restoration of the hair in seemingly hopeless cases by warm shampoos with CUTICURA SOAP, followed by light dressings of CUTICURA, purest of emollient skin cures. This treatment at once stops falling hair, cleans the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, soothes irritated, itching surfaces, stimulates the hair follicles, supplies the roots with energy and nourishment, and makes the hair grow to a clean, sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp, when all else fails.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN use CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour.

Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA Ointment, to instantly relieve itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. NOTES OF INTEREST FROM THE LATE ORIENTAL FILES

We learn from the Japan Times that in the small hours of the 9th inst. the mountains of Kozushima, a volcanic island off Izu province, suddenly began to emit terrifying noises. While the islanders were seeking refuge in fear of some awful event three mountains burst out in a terrible eruption all at once, when some 50 houses and six honito drying factories were instantly destroyed and buried under sand and mud, ejected from the craters. Sixteen islanders were killed by the accident while thirteen were seriously injured. About three hundred of the islanders are suffering. A few days ago some representatives of the islanders went up to Tokio to inform the authorities of the calamity.

Prince Fushimi arrived at Yokohama by the British warship Monmouth at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His Highness was received by Princes Fushimi (Junior), Higashi Fushimi and Kanin, Sir Claude MacDonald, Vice Admiral Saito, Marquis Nabeshima, and a large number of other distinguished Japanese and foreigners. The foreign and Japanese warships in port were decorated in honor of the occasion. Sir Claude MacDonald proceeded to the Monmouth to receive the Prince, who shook hands with him and expressed his gratitude for the kind reception accorded him in Great Britain. The Prince subsequently left for Tokio.

The Tokio Municipality has decided to give a reception in the Welcome Hall of the exhibition to the officers of the British cruiser Monmouth, on which Prince Fushimi returned to this country. The entertainment will take place on the evening of the 19th. Captain Duke, the Commander of the Monmouth, with sixteen of his officers, will be received in audience by H. M. the Emperor on the 18th. They will have the honor of luncheon with His Majesty and Princes Fushimi and Higashi Fushimi.

Prince Fushimi has sent a cable to King Edward expressing the warmest thanks for the
